Local Child Care Planning Council

Enclosure
Child Care Provider Appreciation Day
Friday, May 7, 2010

WHEREAS, Friday, May 7, 2010 will commemorate the 14\textsuperscript{th} annual Child Care Provider Appreciation Day. A day to recognize child care providers, teachers and educators of young children everywhere.

WHEREAS, the Glenn County Child Care Planning Council and Glenn County Office of Education, Department of Child and Family Services, along with other organizations nationwide are recognizing the Child Care Providers on this day; and

WHEREAS, of the 21 million children under age 6 in America, 13 million are in Early Care and Education programs at least part time. An additional 24 million school-age children are in some form of child care outside of school time; and

WHEREAS, by calling attention to the importance of high quality early care and education services for all children and families within our community, these groups hope to improve the quality and availability of such services; and

WHEREAS, our future depends on the quality the early care and education experiences provided to young children today; high quality early care and education services represent a worthy commitment to our children’s future; and

WHEREAS, all citizens are encouraged to do what they can at work, home and within the community to recognize and commend the dedication, compassion and strong family values that child care providers demonstrate everyday.

Now, therefore, I, Steve Soeth, Chairman of the Bard of Supervisors, County of Glenn California, hereby proclaim Friday, May 7, 2010, as Child Care Provider Appreciation Day in Glenn County and urge all citizens to recognize Child Care Providers for their important work.
